Keith Everitt M.L.A. for the St. Albert Constituency, presents a silver tray to Mrs. Helen McAra, a gift of the provincial government to all those who become 100 years of age or over during 1967.

101 Years Old Receives Silver Tray

Mrs. Helen McAra was presented with a silver tray on behalf of the provincial government on Oct. 26 in a ceremony held at the Youville Home where Mrs. McAra now resides.

Jack Hanna, centennial officer for the province was master of ceremonies. In representing Hon. Ambrose Holowach Mr. Hanna said that many wonderful things have happened in this our centennial year but the most wonderful are those things happening to people for Canada is people. He said how happy he was to see one person honored who had played her part to build the community. Mr. Hanna then called on Keith Everitt M.L.A. for St. Albert to make the official presentation.

Mr. Everitt said this was a great honor and pleasure one of the greatest he had since entering politics in 1959. "Although I do not know Mrs. McAra personally I know she has an outstanding history". Mr. Everitt said. He hoped as she looked back over the years that they must have held disappointments, sadness, anxiety and sickness that the joys and happiness had overshadowed these. Mr. Everitt commented "for a lady of your age", you look extremely young".

In making the presentation Mr. Everitt said he paid tribute to her as a great pioneer saying there are no more than three people in this constituency that have attained this age. "The twilight years can be your best" he said.

Mrs. McAra surprised all in accepting the tray with a speech saying how pleased she was to accept the tray and that it was a lovely gesture of the government to remember its senior citizens at a time like this. She thanked Mr. Everitt on behalf of herself and her family.

Mrs. McAra was born in Scotland on Jan. 25, 1866. She came to Canada in 1911 and the family farmed in the Mannville area for six years.

Widowed and with daughters she moved to Edmonton in 1917 where she did housework to put her daughters through school while her three sons served overseas in World War I.

Mrs. McAra was married in New York and her sons were born in Philadelphia, the three daughters were born in Scotland. Five of her children appear in the in the accompanying picture, missing is Mrs. Lottie Lovat of Florida, U.S.A.

The inscription on the tray reads: "Presented by the government of the province of Alberta to honor Helen McAra, a resident of St. Albert, who was born in Scotland in 1866 and as a citizen of the province of Alberta attained the age of 101 years in 1967 the one hundredth anniversary of confederation in Canada."

Bill Webber, president of the St. Albert Lions Club and Jim Byrnes of Byrne's Mens Wear, presented the boys with individual trophies which they Jim and the St. Albert Lions Club had donated as a tribute to the boys winning the Alberta Championship.

The following St. Albert residents have successfully passed the R.N. examinations at the University of Alberta: Miss Ruth G. Barry, Mrs. Claudette A. Kelly and Miss Kathleen Maloney.

Congratulations are being received by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wheatley on the birth of a son Robert Frederick, born in the University Hospital on Oct. 29 and weighing seven pounds, eleven ounces.

Councillors Take Oath of Office

At the Oct. 23 meeting of the St. Albert town council Councillors Bakker, Bull and Wheatley subscribed to the official oaths of office before Mr. Billings. The Oaths were then presented to the secretary-treasurer for safe keeping.

Mayor Fowler offered congratulations to the elected Councillors, stating that he was pleased to see both Mr. Bakker and Mr. Wheatley re-elected. He advised Mr. Bull that the staff and council would be happy to help him in any way possible.

Those present were: Mayor Fowler, Councillors Bakker, Bull, Wheatley, Donals, Gibbon and de Bruijn, secretary-treasurer, J. M. Fleming, S. L. Billings, assistant secretary-treasurer J. Maandag, town engineer, A. R. Gate, superintendent of parks and recreation department, J. X. Woodroffe, Edmonton Regional Planning Commission and Mrs. J. Mustaklem, recording secretary.

Mayor Fowler presented Centennial Scrolls to qualifying groups and individuals.

To Mrs. Batty for No. 3 Brownie Pack who planted a Centennial Tree; To Rev. Olson for Evangelical Lutheran Church who started a retarded children's Sunday School; To St. Albert School of Dancing, Mrs. Hughes accepting, for providing a record player for aphasic children; To Helena Gorka for Squirtettes of Mary who provided tours of Church Museum; To Brian O'Kell who painted the Sturgeon River Bridge. To the Kinsmen Club of St. Albert, Mr. Sinclair accepting, who provided play equipment for all Tot Lots in St. Albert, and to Pauline Vaugeois for No. 3 Guide Company who formed a Centennial Choir.

The Mayor offered congratulations to all recipients and stated that he hoped that they would carry on with their good deeds which are of benefit to the town.

Mr. Fleming introduced a letter from the Local Authorities Board stating that they refuse to entertain that the town has submitted a proper application for examination of the 1967 Estimates of the School Boards Council considered the matter and the consensus stated that this matter should be dealt with before the convention of the A.U.M.A. takes place.

The Mayor is to write a letter to the minister of education enclosing the letter from the L.A.B. and any other items which he feels are necessary.

The appeal to the L.A.B. against the budgets of the two school districts was abandoned.

The secretary-treasurer advised council that as yet he had not received a written reply to his letter to the Local Authorities Board as to whether or not the budget could be prepared without the school districts requisitions.

Council requested the staff to obtain the results of the study by the P.M.A.C. as to whether or not two tax notices can be obtained by the Town. They felt that the school districts should be approached regarding the early mill rate and to ascertain if the supplementary requisitions will exceed the one they have this year.

Mayor Fowler will contact the two Chairmen of the School Boards as to the feasibility of striking and early mill rate.

A.U.M.A. Resolutions Councillor Bakker stated that since Councillor Bull did not have a copy of A.U.M.A. resolutions the discussion on them should be postponed until the secretary-treasurer had obtained an extra copy for his perusal.

Mayor Fowler asked Mr. Billings to explain the Financial Report to Councillor Bull for his information.

Relatives in Civic Service: There was some discussion between council as to whether or not the rules regarding the hiring of relatives should extend to the hiring of outside help. The report as prepared by Mr. Billings, states that no relatives shall be hired by the same department of the town. Mr. Gibbon stated that he did not feel that this should apply in all cases, specifically as regards summer students hired on a part-time basis.

This report will be referred to the finance committee for recommendation.

By-Law 35/67 Being a By-Law for the Registration and Keeping of Dogs was now introduced to Council.

In introducing this By-law Mr. Fleming advised Councillor Gibbon that investigations regarding the matter of unlicensed dogs had been carried out and that this was adequately provided for in the proposed by-law. However, he stated that an amendment could be made which would specifically state this.

Said By-law is to be referred back to the Staff to be placed before Council after such an amendment has been incorporated.

By-law to provide a grant of $500 to the Chamber of Commerce passed third reading.

Alberta Seminar on Education Finance: A letter was introduced by Mr. Fleming regarding this seminar, which will be held in Banff. Council felt that it would be of benefit to have a delegate attend.

Mayor Fowler was authorized to attend the Education Seminar in Banff or that he appoint a councillor to attend in his place if he is unable to go.

Mr. Fleming introduced a letter from S & S Homes regarding Fencing Sturgeon Heights Stage 5. He advised that it was a requirement of C.M.H.C. that a uniform fence was to be placed on this property; however, last year (1966) a building permit had been issued to the builder excluding this stipulation. Subsequent to this the contractor had been informed of the fencing requirements on the remaining lots on which he had an interest. Mayor Fowler advised council that they could either agree to pay the money or refund the option amount paid by the contractor.

Mayor Fowler advised Mr. Fleming to inform S & S Homes that the town was not prepared to accept the $39.95 charge and that present policy stands.

Mr. Fleming was informed that the following councillors would be able to attend the A.U.M.A. Convention: de Bruijn, Gibbon, Bull and Bakker.

E. Perron, Appeal against Development Officer - Mr. Maandag, the town engineer, informed council that Mr. Perron desired to have the side yard requirement reduced from 4' to 3' on his property on #6 Gilmore Crescent. Mr. Woodroffe advised council that as this is a very frequent request perhaps it should refer the matter to the fire chief for his recommendations and make the 3' requirements standard procedure.

This appeal was allowed. Council requested the fire chief to prepare a report on the suitability of reducing the side yard requirement to 3 feet.

CALL OF THE MONASHEE

From the rugged Canadian wilds comes a story of beauty and adventure.

"Call of The Monashee" - filmed in living color and sound, is the product of extended excursions made over a five-year period into an area which is almost legendary. Big game guide, Eugene Folsy and photographer Ernest Laviolette, take you by pack-train into the spectacular Peters Lake region of British Columbia's mighty Monashee Mountains. You will share the excitement of a two-month wilderness camp trip, fish virgin lakes for world famous rainbow trout, and explore the wildlife and mysteries of one of the last unspoiled regions of North America.

Accessible only by pack-train, Peters Lake is widely known as a mountain wilderness. All who have visited it attest to the grandeur of its alplands and placid lakes, and to the wealth of game, wildlife, and alpine flowers. Months of painstaking color photography and equally laborious editing and production have culminated in a wildlife film of rare excellence; its array of subject matter is of interest to hunter and naturalist alike. Mule deer in lush meadows, caribou, mountain goat and cougar, moose, and the diminutive but no less photogenic pikas, marmots and ground squirrels are only a few of the wild creatures featured.

"New Country: Land of The Rainbow" another Folsy-Laviolette production is on the same program.

Beginning in the Cariboo, on the bighorn sheep ranges along the Fraser River, the picture unfolds across the spacious Chilcotin plateau, pauses at a fisherman's paradise and reaches its climax with the stalking of caribou in the timberline country of Tweedsmuir Provincial Park.

Mr. Folsy and Mr. Laviolette, residents of the Okanagan Valley, have already become well known for photographic talent and for their interest in conservation. Their films have been shown on television programs on the Prairies and their articles and photographs have appeared in a number of periodicals.

The Call of the Monashee will be in the St. Albert Community Centre on Nov. 7. The show will start at 8 p.m.

LOCAL FARMER VISITS INDIA

Geof Bocock of the Sturgeon District spent 20 days in India earlier this year with a tour conducted by the FUA. He tells of the need to get the "knowledge out to the people". "Much has been done in research in India", says Mr. Bocock, "but they need more in the way of practical demonstration".

Mr. Bocock also told of the work the Japanese are doing in assisting India in the field of rice production. Japanese equipment is suitable for the small holdings of the Indian farm and the Japanese have sent teams of men and equipment. The result has been over four times the production of rice under Japanese methods.

Because of the lack of any universal type of farm credit, the Indian farmer is still under the control of the local money lender, making it virtually impossible for him to obtain the necessary capital to purchase equipment and thereby increase his productivity.

Agriculture Minister Joe Greene has asked men with practical experience to get in touch with him if they want to help other countries of the world. "There is a real need here in the world" said Mr. Greene during his visit to the Sturgeon District earlier this week. "Canadian farmers are the best producers in the world and they should be given a chance to show the developing nations just how it is done".

Modern Museums

Museums in British Columbia have taken giant strides to rid themselves of any lingering impressions that they are nothing more than staid and cobwebby depositories of the things of yesteryear.

George Moore, adviser with the provincial Museum in Victoria, has visited most local museums in the province and points to their obvious success in portraying some aspect of their region -- such as the area's human and natural history.

Local museums, he says, are appealing to more citizens of their areas as well as to increasing numbers of visitors. As well, he notes the establishment of several private museums in the province.

"And now," says Mr. Moore, "the age of electronics and computers is about to come to museums.

Lettuce production is a new industry in Israel and it is estimated that 400 tons will be delivered to London by air during the current year at $380 per ton F.O.B. London or $170 to the Israeli producers.

Have you ever wondered...

... how it is determined who receives how much welfare assistance from the Province of Alberta?

To ensure that Alberta families truly in need receive the financial assistance required to provide them with an adequate living income, their requirements are judged on the "budget deficit" system. This method balances the cost of such basic requirements as food, shelter, clothing, utilities and medicines against the family assets and income. If the results show a deficit, the Alberta Department of Public Welfare supplements the income to raise it to a pre-determined "adequate" level, based on present living costs. In this way, all Albertans are assured of sufficient income to maintain health and decency for themselves and their families.

... what the recipe is for good growing soil?

As in all recipes, the main concern is the proper amount of the correct ingredients. Alberta farmers can learn if the soil in their field contains the proper proportions of plant nutrients by asking the Soils Branch of the Plant Industry Division, Alberta Department of Agriculture.

For a small fee, they can have a sample of soil laboratory-tested for fertility level, fertilizer requirements, acidity, alkalinity, salinity and organic matter. A report is then issued, based on the results of the analysis and on the cropping history of the land, recommending to the farmer the proper fertilizer needs, or the cultural practice adjustments necessary for the most efficient crop production. The same service is offered Albertans who wish advice on the soil of their vegetable or flower gardens, or lawns. The Soils Branch also issues regularly, general recommendations for the use of fertilizer with various types of soil.

... what steps are being taken to prevent mental health problems in Alberta?

Trained personnel teams consisting of psychiatrists, psychologists and social workers travel the province from Guidance Clinic headquarters in major population centres to assess and diagnose mental problems and to recommend solutions. This assistance in the management of emotional and behavior problems of children and adults is provided by the Mental Health Division of the Alberta Department of Health and is available to schools, parents and doctors, without charge. Appointments can be made through school superintendents, doctors or local health units. The Division maintains residential treatment centres for disturbed children where rehabilitation training and recreation are provided by a professional staff, and operates out-patient clinics at the Guidance Clinics. The Mental Health Division also administers the plan under which patients in mental hospitals are provided with hospital and medical care at a cost of $1 to $1.50 per day.

... what it takes, besides "a heap-o-livin'", to make a house a home?

Every homemaker knows that the house she is building, remodelling, or occupying, should be designed to suit her convenience, decorated to please her taste, and managed to the best of her ability. To be sure that all three objectives are achieved, Alberta homemakers, can call on professional assistance from the Home Economics Extension Service of the Alberta Department of Agriculture. For help in drafting house plans, choosing building materials, selecting exterior design and interior decoration, the services of a Home Design Specialist are available through District Home Economist Offices. The D.H.E. herself will advise on color schemes, finishing materials, appliances and approximate housing costs. And, to assist in such areas as the use of credit, the keeping of household records and the establishment of comparative values, the Home Economics Extension Service provides the skill and knowledge of a Home Management Specialist.

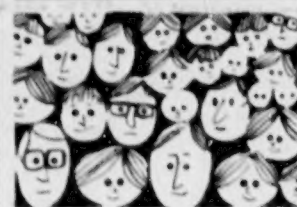

... how far ahead you must be able to see to plan Alberta's power requirements?

At least six years into the future, because it takes about five years to progress from "decision-to-build" to "power-producing-plant". Planning several years ahead of time for new power plants and the major transmission lines that connect them with the existing system is vital to providing sufficient power to meet the needs of Alberta's growing industry. This "electrical forecasting" is done by the Alberta Power Commission, a section of the Alberta Department of Industry and Development. Not only must the Commission decide when and where new plants are to be built but it must also coordinate the efforts of the various private industrial corporations which share in installing new power sources. The over-all supervision of the Alberta Power Commission eliminates duplication of effort and equipment and encourages the interchange of power between companies, thus keeping the cost of power as low as possible.

... who bears today's responsibility for Alberta's tomorrow?

Alberta's future depends on the people who live in our province right now. It is their potential and their development which are the basic raw materials from which tomorrow must be constructed. The responsibility for providing every Albertan with the opportunity to develop his personal potential to the fullest lies with three newly-created agencies of the Province of Alberta. The intention of the Human Resources Research Council is to undertake social, educational and economic research so that new and improved programs may provide this opportunity to individuals and communities throughout the province. The Alberta Advisory Council, formed of Alberta citizens whose interests include both the economic and social aspects of life in the province, will act as a sounding board for new ideas and will assess the value of present programs. The co-ordinating body for the project is the Human Resources Development Authority. Together, these three bodies form an organization whose firm intention is to create the greatest possible opportunity for the personal potential development of every Albertan.

Sturgeon Health Unit Mothers Work

Do you feel restless? Do you count dollars instead of sheep? Does your family take you for granted? Do you find one day just like the next?

So read an advertisement, elaborated in various departments for the Christmas season. They showed a lively awareness of the needs of many mothers who are at home with their children.

The benefits to the mother who goes to work are obvious. What about the child? The problem of physical care is obvious but is it dangerous to his mental health to leave him with a baby-sitter or in a day-care centre?

This is a thorny question. As late as 1960 I heard of a young woman who had been advised not only never to leave her baby with someone else, she was not even to take him from the environment to which he had become accustomed, namely the living room of her apartment. To say that under these circumstances a strain develops between mother and child would be an understatement.

But if a baby-sitter can be found who is concerned not only with the physical care of her charges but who is also able and willing to cultivate a warm, loving relationship with the child, then there is no danger of harming emotional development.

So with the mother at work the children are well cared for and benefit in an un-

Canada's First Bank celebrates a Centennial and a half

Throughout this Centennial year, Bank of Montreal has joined with communities, large and small, across the nation in celebrating 100 years of Confederation.

On November 3rd, we have our own special day of celebration — the 150th anniversary of the founding of Canada's First Bank and the Canadian banking system.

On this historic occasion we could be looking backward over 150 years of achievement. Instead, we're looking ahead.

We're looking ahead with the enthusiasm of a vibrant institution geared for the future... A people's bank pervaded with a dynamic urge to maintain the leadership that has always characterized its service to the Canadian people.

The years ahead will be full of new challenges and new opportunities. Fresh ground must be broken and new pathways established in creative services to our customers to meet their ever-changing needs.

Right now we're busy trail-blazing. That's the responsibility that comes with the privilege of being a leader.

When you're 150 years old you have to think young ■ In the past year alone, Bank of Montreal has continued to lead the way by being first with: True Savings Accounts ■ True Chequing Accounts ■ Bancardchek (the cash card) ■ Customer Convenience Hours ■ As we enter the second half of our second century it's as true today as it was in 1817: The bank of the future is Canada's First Bank.

New Teachers Honoured

"Alberta Teachers' Association has, through its collective action during the past 50 years, achieved the goals set for the Alberta Teachers in 1918", said Fred Seymour, assistant executive secretary of the ATA. "We need to have a second look at our objects and decide on certain new goals that we can look forward to and achieve during the next 50 years," he said.

Mr. Seymour was addressing a reception for the new teachers in the Sturgeon Local of the ATA. This reception was held in the Kingsway Motor Hotel in Edmonton on Oct. 28.

Mr. Seymour said that the trend set in the ATA policies and activities in the recent years is indicative of the new goals for this association. Teachers are more concerned about their professional competence and are striving to improve the quality of their services by spending more and more time and energy in professional activities.

Nineteen new teachers were inducted into the ranks of the ATA by Ron Mundell, a member of the provincial executive council of the ATA at a formal ceremony held the same afternoon. Among these nineteen new teachers five are from Great Britain, five from other provinces of Canada, one each from Malaysia and the Philippines and seven are native of Alberta.

President of the local, Marcel Schayes, past president, Alan Fretwell, and past secretary Paul Chalfoux assisted Mr. Mundell in this ceremony.

Among the special guests at the banquet that followed were: Superintendent of schools, Mr. Kunst, Mrs. Hole and John McDonnell (Sturgeon School Board), Mr. Teller and Art Krauskopf, Thibault School Board, and Roger Prefontaine from Legal School Board.

Bert Tutschek, music teacher in Camilla School, provided the dinner music on the piano and David Hughes of Alcomdale School entertained the guests with Highland dancing.

Sturgeon Local honored Louis Voghell, ex-assistant superintendent of schools, for his services to the teachers in the area. A gift was presented to him at this function by Desmond McDonald, secretary of the

Those who have studied the question of mother-child separation in the pre-school years think it depends on how many hours each day the child is away from his home and therefore whether he will be with his mother for long enough to develop a close relationship with her.

give your heating system a safety check-up!

Normally, your natural gas appliances and heating system operate with little care or maintenance. However, an annual check-up will ensure full efficient operation and complete comfort. To help you inspect your heating system, use this handy guide.

CHECK YOUR CHIMNEY:

Loose mortar, soot, and other debris may accumulate at the base of the chimney obstructing free passage of the products of combustion. Watch that ice and snow on top of the chimney do not cause blockage.

RANGES SHOULD NOT BE USED TO HEAT A ROOM

Do not use your kitchen range to heat a room. Use a proper heater designed for the purpose.

CHECK ALL VENT PIPES:

Examine all appliance vent pipes. A dislodged vent may block the end of the pipe, or permit exhaust to enter the room.

BE ALERT TO DANGER SIGNALS:

Smarting of the eyes, nose irritation and unpleasant odors are indications of fumes in your home.

FRESH AIR SOURCE:

Be sure there is a source of fresh air in your home. Do not keep your house "air-tight". Your gas appliances, like you, need air.

Oct. 22, saw a good congregation on hand at the St. Joseph's seminary Chapel for the first service since moving from the Nickerson School. The seminary authorities have agreed to permit the full use of the chapel and teaching rooms by the congregation of St. Mathew's Parish. Students of the seminary were consulted prior to the decision to share the accomodation and exhibited a friendly interest in making the congregation feel at home in their new quarters. The Service and Sunday School, which are held at 11 a.m. each Sunday, drew considerable attention from the press and marks a new forward step in Canadian ecumenical relations. We are grateful to Archbishop Jordon and Bishop Burch for their support.

Mr. Schroder, in referring to the appointment of Architect for the proposed new High School, advised that a meeting of the High School Committee has been arranged for Oct. 21.

Mrs. Ratke was granted a leave of absence without pay for the month of October.

Mrs. Verstraete was granted a leave of absence for a period of five months, without pay, commencing Nov. 1, subject to a replacement being found and on the condition that Mrs. Verstraete not take other employment during her leave.

Department of Education letters dated October 13 and 17, 1967 re. proposed Section 233 Bank Loans.

The letters signed by Mr. U. R. Shogren, field administrative officer, recommended that the board consider financing the cost of providing a maintenance shop reconstructing the roof on the Paul Kane High School, and equipping the business education classroom in the high school, by way of a twenty-five year debenture in order to reduce the burden of large annual repayments.

The secretary-treasurer will prepare a by-law in the amount of $31,000 to cover these costs for presentation at the next meeting.

All Trustees, should be registered as delegates to the Alberta School Trustees Association annual convention to be held at the Chateau Lacombe from Nov. 5 to 8 the superintendent and secretary-treasurer were also authorized to attend.

Dr. Cuts, Mr. Wiltshire, and Mr. Schroder were given one ballot votes.

The Members reviewed the Resolutions to be presented at the Convention in detail. It was suggested by Mr. Penrose that with regard to the Section covering General Association Administration, that delegates use their own discretion.

The Superintendent was requested to draft either an amendment to Resolution No. 25 M/67 or prepare a new resolution for presentation at the next annual convention.

It was agreed to propose an amendment to Resolution No. 28 M/67 by deleting the words "this purpose" from the end of the Resolution and inserting the words "school purposes".

It was agreed to propose an amendment to Resolution No. 30 M/67 by inserting the word "educational" before the word "responsibility" in the last line of the Resolution.

The Secretary-Treasurer was asked to provide the Board with the specific Section of The Education Act authorizing the Minister of Education to grant temporary authority to a teacher who has no formal teacher education.

The Superintendent was requested to report further on Resolutions Nos. 37 M/67 and 38 M/67.

The secretary-treasurer will contact the town of St. Albert regarding the arrangements made for snow removal this year.

Mr. Penrose enquired as to when the board would be given a budget report. The Secretary-Treasurer advised that a report showing the financial position of the district as at Oct. 15 is being prepared and will be presented to the board on Nov. 2. This report will also show a forecast to Dec. 31.

The superintendent tabled material showing actual enrollments for the years 1963 to 1967 and predicted enrollments to the year 1976. He pointed out that the prediction for Grades 10 to 12 for that year indicates an enrollment of 1,067 students.

Revolutionary Idea FUA President

The President of the Farmers' Union of Alberta, Paul Babey, has promised Alberta farmers that a revolutionary idea in producer marketing will be presented for their consideration in the near future.

Mr. Babey said farmers have few choices facing them. "We can continue as we are and be gradually wiped out."

"We can continue to ask for legislation which, if it does come, will again be too little and too late."

He urged farmers to choose another path:

"Take hold of your agricultural destiny; become more business-like and retain control of your products until they reach the consumer."

The FUA President said farmers must be prepared to seek new ways of solving their problems, or both the viable and the uneconomic units will be forced out of business.

He predicted that operators of viable farms would sell their farms because of a low return to investment and labour, and the uneconomic units would be sold because the operators have no other choice.

Mr. Babey refused to elaborate on the new marketing idea because, he said, "the time is not right—those who might find reason to oppose the idea will not be given the opportunity to do so before we can complete the details of the formula".

Bon Accord 4-H
